Grocery store robbery in Canton ends up with 1 million dollars stolen! Criminals caught!

Deli Meats, a known grocery store which sold various food products, was recently broken into from robbers. An estimated 1 million dollars have been stolen by just 3 robbers. The police have taken the individuals to custody and have investigated them. Mike Green, Bob Smith, and Paul Allen have all been sent to their own separate court hearings.

Inspiration from a video game?

Paul Allen confessed that the videogame, GrandTheftAuto 5 was the main motive to their robbery. "We played that game everyday, and we thought we could do it in real life." said Paul in his court hearing 3 hours ago. The hearings of the other two are scheduled later. Information on what happened in the store is currently being investigated, and the lost money has still not been found.
